

Safety

Our proprietary drilling rigs are compliant with the French NF-EN-16228 standard. Our consulting and engineering office actively participates in developing safety systems for our machines in partnership with the USG (Geotechnical Association) and SOFFONS (Professional Drilling Association). This explains why all our machines are now equipped with emergency stop slam buttons, sensitive flaps, safety cages, and reduced operation mode (open cage).

